Salt Lake City, Utah — Friday Morning — December 2, 1960

Birt Gardner was born Aug. 31, 1900, in Mt. Carmel, a son of Henry and Madalene Dailey Gardner. He married Mina Pugh Aug. 30, 1933, in the St. George Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

HE IS survived by a son, Milton, Mt. Carmel; two daughters, Mrs. Owen (Annie) Judd, Mt. Carmel; Mrs. Stanford (Lucile) Larson, St. George; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Bessie Francis, Morgan; Mrs. Lillian Anderson, Provo; Grant, Provo; Merritt, Monroe, and Mrs. Grace Heaton, Orderville; four grandchildren.

Mina Pugh Gardner was born Aug. 30, 1909, in Kanab, a daughter of Edward Kelley and Annie Englestead Pugh. She is survived by a son and daughter, 11 brothers and sisters.

Special to The Tribune

HATCH, Garfield County—Four persons were killed and two critically injured Thursday in a truck-car collision seven miles south of Hatch on U.S. Highway 89.

THE DEAD were identified as Birt Gardner 60, his wife Mina, 51, both of Mt. Carmel, Kane County; Wallace Slaugh, 55, and Mrs. Naomi Slaugh, 46, both of Orderville.

The truck driver, Reed Judd, about 58, Panguitch, was listed in critical condition with two broken legs, serious head injuries, and possible back injuries. A passenger, Artis Woodard, 26, Panguitch, was treated for severe head lacerations.

Trooper Otho Bulkley, who

File: Year from of Virgin River