RE: Arthur E. Reichle

Dear Mr. Leake:

We wrote you a letter dated March 16, 1988 regarding a water delivery problem concerning one of our stockholders by the name of Arthur E. Reichle. To this date we have not received a reply to our letter.

We again point out that Mr. Reichle is a stockholder in Mosby Irrigation Company holding a certificate for 50 shares of water. Mosby Irrigation Company has in the past and continues to deliver water to the point of diversion for the beneficial use of this stockholder. It is our understanding that Mr. Reichle during this 1988 water season has not been able to convey his water through the ditch crossing the Raymond Murray property from the point of diversion to where the water can be used by Mr. Reichle.

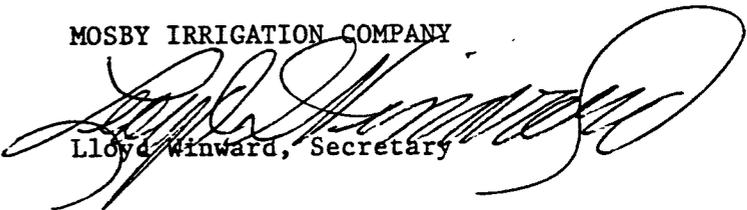

On the instruction of the Board of Directors based on their meeting dated July 14, 1988 I have consulted with our attorney Mr. Joseph Novak. Our attorney has instructed us to again write you regarding this matter and to put you on notice that Mosby Irrigation Company is delivering Mr. Reichle's share of the water to which he is entitled in our system to the point of diversion.

We are concerned about the ongoing nature of this controversy between Mr. Reichle and Mr. Murray and again solicit your cooperation and assistance in resolving this matter.

May we have a letter by return mail informing us as to your position in this matter and what is being done to resolve the same.

Yours very sincerely,

MOSBY IRRIGATION COMPANY
