

Cedar City, Utah.
March 15. 1960.

Mr. Frank Reese
Business Manager
State Engineer's Office
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Mr. Reese:

Following is a list of persons to whom assesment notices should be sent.

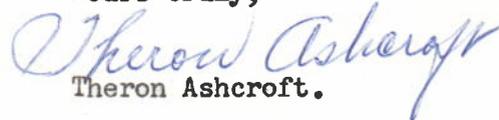

8	Elwood J. Corry, Sect. Coal Creek Irrig. Co. , 56 West Harding Ave. , CEDAR CITY.
1	Wm Condie, Sect. South and West Field Irrig. Co. , 914 West 200 N	"	"
3.8	Ray Melling, Sect. North Field Irrig. Co. , 308 South 500 West,	"	"
3 ^A	Glen Kenney, Sect. East Extension Ditch, 365 West 200 North,	"	"
4	Glen Kenney, Sect. Union Field Irrig. Co. 365 West 200 North,	"	"
6	Fernleigh Gardner, Sect. North West Field (Bulldog) Ditch. R.F.D.	"	"
5	Clarence Cripps, Sect. Old Fort & Old Field Irr. Co. 1101 West 200 N	"	"
2	Arnold Anderson, Mayor Cedar City Corp. City and County Bldg.	"	"
7	Elwood J. Corry, Sect. Hunter Ditch Assoc. 56 West Harding Ave.	"	"
9	Ralph Thomas, Division Manager California-Pacific Utilities 107 N Main	"	"

The East Extension is a division of the North Field Irrig. Co and they split the water half a nd half with the rest of the company.

The Hunter Ditch is owned by Cedar City and the L.D.S. Church. Elwood Corry is the Church representative and Arnold Anderson is the City representative. The assement could go to either as they are not organized.

I will be happy to furnish any other information you may need.

Yours truly,

Theron Ashcroft.
