O R D E R .

The Charleston Irrigation Company, a corporation, and a defendant in the above entitled cause, having made application to this Court for the right to change the point of diversion of said defendant's upper canal, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, it is ORDERED:

That, said defendant the Charleston Irrigation Company, shall have and is hereby granted the right to change its point of diversion of its upper canal to a point in the Third District of the Wasatch Division, on Provo River and above the Midway Lower Dam. Said change shall not in any way, or at all, interfere with the rights of the other parties to this cause, or effect the established rights to the use of the waters of Provo River.

And upon and thereafter the waters diverted by and through said changed point of diversion shall be subject to the same rights, orders and decrees, as prescribed for the rights in the said Third District of the Wasatch Division.
