Dear Sir:

Your letter of May 20th., in regard to the Spring Canyon District has been received and contents thereof noted. I am quite sure that the difficulties between Elegante and Demarco could be adjusted and should be adjusted without law suits. Mrs. Demarco has however filed suit against Mrs. Elegante. I am sure, however, that if an effort were to be made on your part or your representative that the matters could be adjusted without litigation and unnecessary expense on the part of the respective parties.

Very truly yours,

Henry Ruggeri
