

August 24, 1932.

Mr. James Gurr,
Ioka, Utah.

Dear Sir:

RE: SAND WASH DIST.

I have your letter of August 21 and am enclosing abstract of filings on Sand Wash.

With reference to details of your duties I would say that I am not in a position to give any advice. In appointments of this kind it is assumed that the man recommended is competent to look after details otherwise no benefit arises from the appointment.

Yours very truly,

State Engineer.
