Provo Reservoir Company,
a Corporation, Plaintiff,

vs.

Provo City, et al
and Nels J. Johnson.
Defendants.

No. 2888 Civil
GENERAL APPEARANCE.

Comes now Nels J. Johnson and intervenes and voluntarily appears in this cause, waiving service of Summons and time in which to answer, and alleges that he has an interest in litigation in this suit, and that he is a water user and has a right to the use of a certain amount of the water of Provo River and its tributaries, the right to the use of which stream of water is in controversy in this suit, and prays that he may be made a party defendant in this action and allowed to set up his claim to the use of a portion of the waters of said stream.

Char. J. Wahlquist

Attorney for Nels J. Johnson, intervenor desiring to be made defendant in this action

Service of copy of the above General Appearance of Nels J. Johnson, is hereby accepted this 2^d day of July, 1914, and plaintiff consents that said Nels J. Johnson be made a party defendant in this action.
